

08

KANDY LAKE

Lipton's Seat viewpoint was named after the Scottish businessman Thomas Lipton who collaborated in introducing tea gardens to the country. This is a must-visited vantage point in Badulla. You will be able to witness the Sabaragamuwa, Uva, Central, Eastern provinces from the viewpoint.

- Listen to the local legends and the folklore on the lake while walking around the lake.
- Explore around the lake in your leisure time to have quality time for yourself.
- Relax near the lake and gaze into the cotton candy sky in the evenings with the majestic view of the palace.
- Feed the fish in the lake and have a peaceful time in the shades.
- Have a perfect walk or run around the lake with a panoramic view of the surrounding.

09

CANBUY GEM MUSEUM

This gem museum is an evidence of Sri Lanka being one of the largest gem producers in the world. The museum displays the rarest and most valuable gems, minerals, and rocks. This is truly a mesmerizing place to visit especially for tourists who travel around the world.

- Get custom-made jewelry with the gems positioned inside which is a unique opportunity for the visitors.
- Scroll through the small shops and have a chance to make some of the gems your own.
- Explore through the exhibits and get a decent knowledge of gems.

10

ESALA PERAHARA

“

Be lucky to witness this unique celebration if you are around Kandy during July and August as the Esala Perahara is one of the best celebrations overloaded with colorful and warm lights in the street that you must not miss in any case.

- Reserve a place to watch the perahara beforehand as it normally gets crowded every day.
- See all the drummers and dancers who dance along the street.
- Witness the colorfully decorated elegant elephants, especially the main elephant who majestically walk on the street carry-ing the golden casket of the Sacred Tooth Relic.

MUWARA ELIYA

Horton plains or the World's End is a landmark in Nuwara Eliya which is popular among hikers. This place is a UNESCO World Heritage which is in height of 2,100- 2,300 meters. The mesmerizing landscape and the spectacular views are not to miss. Most of the travelers visit Horton Plains to see the World's end and other breathtaking landscapes.

- Visit the Bakers Falls, a major attraction on the way to the World's End, and have a refreshing time near the fascinating fall.
- Visit the ultimate destination World's End to have an incredible view of the misty mountains.
- Visit the destination early morning as it gets quite misty during late hours.
- Bring your own food and enjoy on the way or have it sitting on the grassland be sure not to pollute the surrounding.
- Get close to the Sambar Deer and even have a nice picture with them.
- Explore the grasslands and enjoy the scenic beauty while walking.
- Refresh your mind by visiting the natural ponds and walking across the banks enjoying nature.
- Go camping to enjoy the nightlife in Horton Plains.

02

MOON PLAINS

Moon Plains is foremost the best place to be engulfed in nature and to have the best view anyone could ask for. The place is located 6km away from the main city and is also known as 'Sandathanna'. The breathtaking view truly will make want to stay days in the location and would not make you leave the place.

- Explore the most promised and lovely scenery through your ride.
- The best time to visit is early in the morning to see the clear majestic view of the stunning plains and lush mountains.
- Witness all the high mountain ranges and all the lush greenery from the Moon Plains viewpoint and walk along with the cloudy scenery.
- Rent a jeep to reach the top of the Moon plains which is quite an adventure.

03

AMBEWELA FARM

Enveloped by the lush greens and misty mountains, Ambewela Farm is an all-time favorite for all the people who visit Nuwara Eliya. This place is easily distinguished thanks to the wide grassland where cows roam freely in every spot which is an absolute beauty with the foggy weather and cool temperature.

- Try out the famous Ambewala dairy products in the cafeteria to refresh yourself.
- Gaze on the fresh grasslands and the carefree cows eating grass.
- Visit all the sections where all the rabbits, pigs, goats, and cows are in various age limits and even feed them.

04

GREGORY LAKE

One of the prettiest places where the majority of public attention is lured due to the bewitching landscape full of flowers and greens. This is the best place to enjoy recreational activities enjoying the pleasantly cold weather.

- Have a fascinating boat ride in the lake which is the main focus of the place.
- Speed across the lake in a speed boat and enjoy how the water dances.
- Have a pony ride or even ride on a bicycle around the lake enjoying the weather.
- Known to be an ideal place to go on a picnic with your family or your partner.
- Eat delicious savory snacks or have a meal in any restaurant hut all around the park.
- Have some snacks while having a walk around the lake.
- Enjoy a ride across the pool with a partner in a swan-shaped paddleboat.

05

VICTORIA PARK

A perfect getaway for outings where you all can enjoy the pricey scenery easily. Victoria Park is blessed with all kinds of exotic birds flying freely and diverse flower plants situated in the center of the city

- Perfect place to click pictures with your loved ones.
- Have a walk in the early morning or in the evenings to relax your mind.
- Ideal place for relaxation.
- Recommended visiting the park in the spring season when the flowers are fully blooming.
- Go on a picnic in your leisure time with your loved ones.

06

HAKGALA BOTANICAL GARDEN

This famous botanical garden is the second largest botanical garden in Sri Lanka. Have a chance to see exotic animal species and different plants in different sections of the garden such as ferns, cacti, orchids, etc. the year-round cool climate also supports the garden to be so fresh and colorful throughout the year.

- Listen to the ancient “Ramayana” legends in Sri Lanka as Hakgala was an ancient place where ‘Sita’ was hidden.
- Visit all the ferns garden, Japanese garden, and the seed room section.
- Enjoy the fascinating scenery of flowers and enjoy the visit of exotic animals.

07

ST. CLAIR'S FALLS

“

St. Clair's waterfall is another widest waterfall in Sri Lanka that seems to appear out of nowhere. This is also known as “Little Niagara of Sri Lanka” for its wide structure. This is located in the Thalawakale town in Nuwara Eliya and is impacted by the Hydropower project in Upper Diyaluma.

- Capture the best view on the fall in the viewpoints in Colombo- Hatton- Nuwara Eliya road.
- Walk over the beautiful emerald green tea plantations.

08 STRAWBERRY GARDEN

This pretty garden is located in the Hakgala- Ambewela road which is a paradise rich in red strawberries.

- Explore through the fields of strawberries and capture the memory in a photograph.
- Have a tour in specialized tractors as the strawberry fields are quite large.
- Pick up fully grown strawberries for your own
- Buy fresh strawberry-based products such as jam, smoothies, and all strawberry flavored products.

09 WATERFALLS LIKE RAMBODA FALLS, AND LOVER'S LEAP

By now it's not a secret that Sri Lanka is far most a kingdom of waterfalls. Especially the central province is gifted with waterfalls due to the high mountains and valley. You are welcome to have an inspiring view near all of these waterfalls.

Ramboda Ella-

- Located in the Kandy- Nuwara Eliya road on the way to Nuwara Eliya from Ella.
- Enjoy the breathtaking view of the fall as it is obviously a fantastic leg of your journey.

Lover's Leap

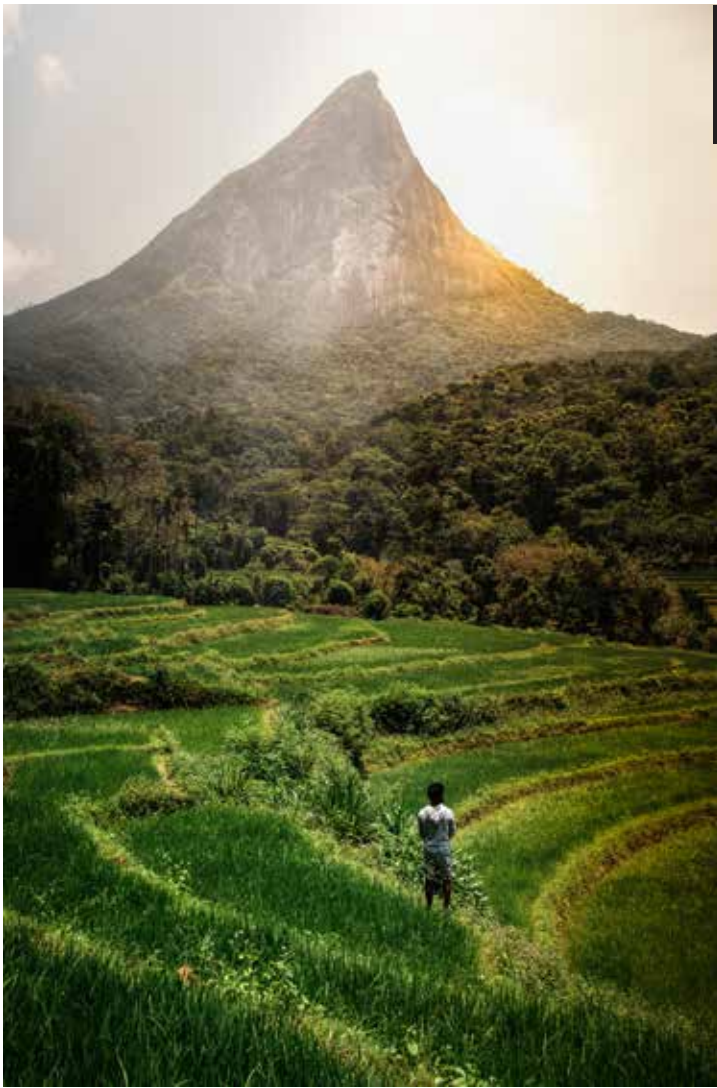

- Located 3km from Nuwara Eliya, well-known for its romantic tales.
- Visit the cool water falling to the tank below Excellent place for a picnic.
- Witness the mesmerizing view from the top of the fall to make the visit more adventurous.

MATHALE

This clenched fist mountain range is most importantly a paradise for hikers. The spectacular scenery and the variety of biodiversity make the mountain range to be a UNESCO World Heritage. The range is filled with dense forests, hiking trails, and waterfalls which add an extra glamor for the visitors.

- Hike the mountain and experience the pleasant feeling of the surroundings sprinkled with misty trees.
- Capture all the fascinating places on your way as the place is a hotspot for great scenery.
- Visit Meemure which is a small countryside village deep inside the dense forest.
- Hike on the popular hiking trails such as Mini-World's end trail, the trail to Kalupahana, the trail to Ahungalla cave.

02

MEEMURE

This is the best place to step outside your comfort zone. If you want to take on challenges, Meemure is the perfect place for you. The place is hidden and untouched by many travelers as it is quite secluded from the other famous places. Meemure is a remote isolated village with less population.

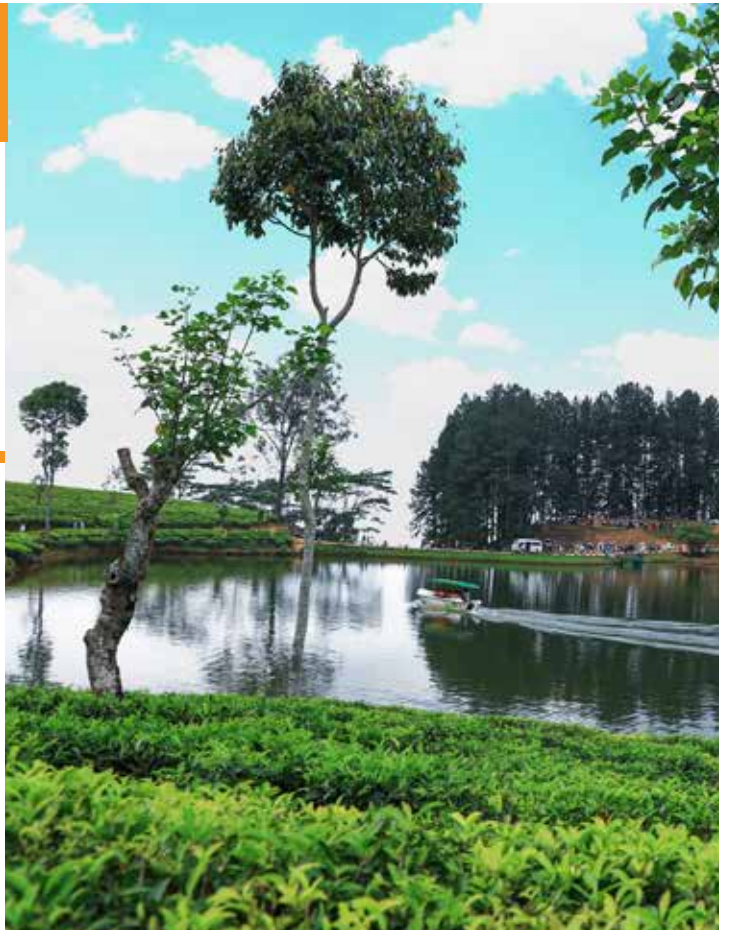

- Experience the virgin pastoral village experience through Meemure which is worth visiting.
- Be adventurous and go camping and experience the live challenges. Blend with the locals that are ready to help you and enjoy your journey comfortably.
- Have a refreshing bath on the Heen River.
- Watch exotic birds and wildlife sitting on the grass in this lovely village which is a perfect getaway from your busy life.
- Explore the eco-friendly lifestyles of villages visiting all the local cultivations.
- Spend your days in a local lodge away from your phones and other networks.

03

SEMBUWATTA LAKE

If you are willing to experience adventurous activities this lake is the best place for you. This manmade lake is created from natural spring water and serves as a major charm in the hill country. The lake pool which is enveloped by the thick pine forest offers you plenty of adventurous activities.

- Visit the summer huts and lodges to have a drink or to relax.
- Gaze into the deep water and the misty mountains and emerald tea fields.
- Go camping to get a more adventurous experience beside the lake.
- Enjoy various other activities such as having a boat ride, zip lining, paddling a swan boat, canoe, ride a motorboat.
- Have a relaxing walk through the woods near the lake.
- Have a swim or bath in the separate pool near the lake.

04

PITIWALA PATHANA

“

Pitiwala Pathana is a charming grassland in the Knuckles Conservation Forest which is enhanced with flora and fauna. The place is a nerve wrecking place worth visiting. This place is locally called ‘Dumbara’ as it constantly gets misty.

- Watch the rich endemic and exotic plants.
- Visit the World’s End Drop.
- Watch the cascading waterfalls.
- Go on camping as the surrounding offers a lovely landscape and a luring nature.

05

WASGAMUWA NATIONAL PARK

“

For those who are interested in watching wildlife, Wasgamuwa National Park is one of the top national parks located in the districts of Mathale and Polonnaruwa.

- Closely watch the wildlife and the birds in the national park.
- Visit the remains of the ancient Buddhist temple.
- Stay the night in the villas near the park and enjoy the night being adventurous.

The living museum in Sri Lanka, Sigiriya is a palace built in a rock by the ancient King Kashyapa in the 477-495AD. This is the eighth wonder of the world and also is announced as a World Heritage by UNESCO. The Sigiriya Rock Fortress is famous for its archeological importance as it is a site of archeological and historical value.

- Explore through the palace remains on the top of the rock accompanied by large gardens, ancient mind-blowing reservoirs, and irrigational systems in the top of the rock.
- Eyewitness all the wonders in the top of the rock such as exceptional ancient urban planning, landscape and architecture, remarkable hydraulic engineering, and unique art inside the rock fortress.
- Observe the world-famous Sigiri graffiti, the Lion Paw entrance, the Mirror Wall, Fresco female Paintings, and all the other remains of the king's palace.

www.tourgossips.com

